FlexDistance Calling Plan 6¢ or less per minute for state-to-state and in-state calls

Keeping things simple is one of the ways Verizon offers you even more efficiency for your business. And flexible options keep you up and running. With the FlexDistance Calling Plan, you can get the same low per-minute rate – 6¢ or less – for both state-to-state and in-state calling, depending on your monthly usage.

Review your long distance charges, and if your business spends $25 per month or more, the FlexDistance Calling Plan may be right for you.

Sign up for one of three monthly minimum spending levels: $24, $40 or $65, whichever is most consistent with your historical monthly billing, and you can start your savings. The higher the monthly minimum spending level you select, the lower your per-minute rate.
